

Lemon Bay Playhouse 2010-2011 Season

September 1-19, 2010

Drama

Trying by Joanna McClelland Glass

A young Canadian girl and an old Philadelphia aristocrat by the name of Judge Biddle are "trying" to understand each other in what he knows is the final year of his life. This two-character play is based on the author's experience during the time she worked for Francis Biddle who had been Attorney General of the United States under Franklin Roosevelt. "...it is enormously bracing theater." - New York Daily News

March 2-20, 2011

Comedy

Dearly Departed by David Bottrell & Jessie Jones

Not since Steel Magnolias has a more colorful and dysfunctional group of Southern eccentrics gathered below the Mason-Dixon line. When the patriarch of the Turpin family keels over dead, the struggle to get him buried involves the whole clan, including the not-so-grieving widow who wants to put "Mean and Surly" on the tombstone. "If you were amused by Greater Tuna, this more ambitious trip down a rustic main street could be just your dish of cola." NY Post

October 27 - November 14, 2010

Comedy

CHAPTER TWO by Neil Simon

George, recently widowed, is encouraged to start dating again. This sends him into even more depression after a series of bad matches. Leo, his younger brother comes up with Jennie Malone. George and Jeanie stumble on, overcoming both their hesitation on the rebound and emotional neediness. In a hilarious, farcical subplot, Leo has a fling with Faye, Jennie's neurotic married friend. "Lovely, whimsical and touching and always funny.." New York Post

April 27 - May 15, 2011

Comedy/Drama

THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope, Jamie Wooten

Five Southern women, whose friendships began many years ago on their college swim team, set aside a long weekend every August to recharge those relationships. The play focuses on four of those weekends and spans a period of thirty-five years. The Dixie Swim Club is the story of these five unforgettable women—a hilarious and touching comedy about friendships that last forever.

January 5-23, 2011

Mystery

CATCH ME IF YOU CAN by Jack Weinstock &

Willie Gilbert

This Broadway whodunit is exciting from beginning to end. An advertising man, who has brought his bride to the boss's mountain lodge for a honeymoon, calls in the police to investigate her sudden disappearance. Enter a young girl, who insists she is the missing wife. A priest backs up her story. Before you know it, there are two murders. "The final 15 minutes will reward you as a murder mystery should." NY Times

June 22 - July 10, 2011

Comedy/Drama

See Rock City by Arlene Hutton

This tender and funny play follows May and Raleigh through the end of World War II and introduces their two mothers-in-law. Faced with daily rejection letters for his writing, constant criticism from his mother, and taunts of cowardice from townspeople, Raleigh fights to find meaning in his new life. When May loses her job, she discovers she must make a sacrifice to save her relationship with Raleigh.

This tender portrayal of married life shows the best of the human spirit.

Please note: If you, the ticket holder, are not in your seat at 5 minutes before curtain, there is a possibility that your seat will be given to another patron. If you anticipate being late and will be unable to arrive by 5 minutes to curtain time, please call the LBP Box Office at 941-475-6756, and your seat can be held. If you arrive after the show has begun, you may not be seated until intermission. Should you arrive less than 5 minutes before curtain, and your seat is no longer available, we will 1) attempt to re-seat you, 2) exchange your ticket for another performance if possible, or 3) refund your money.
